

IMMORTAL, INVISIBLE, GOD ONLY WISE¹

(words by Walter Chalmers Smith (1824-1908))

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all,² life Thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish—but naught changeth Thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Thine angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight;
All laud³ we would render: O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth Thee.⁴

¹ In W. C. Smith's Hymns of Christ and the Christian Life published in 1867, the original of the hymn contained six verses based on 1st Timothy 1:17.

² In verse 3 line 1, there was a comma after 'To all' in some of the earlier versions of the hymn. That perhaps helped clarify the intended sense.

³ In some hymn books, the modern word 'praise' is used instead of 'laud' in verse 4 line 3.

⁴ Verse 4 was formed by placing together the first couplets of the last two verses of the original while the second couplets were omitted. This alteration has been widely adopted in most hymn books.
